

Benefits of Phase 2

Major transformation of existing rail network across South East Wales. Will deliver faster and more frequent services, new stations, enhanced integration and improved rolling stock. This phase will establish the foundation of an extendable Metro network.

- Delivers improved access to employment across the region and especially to communities on core valley lines north of Cardiff
- Enhanced potential for transport related development and regeneration across the region
- Modal shift to public transport with corresponding reductions in CO₂ emissions

Figure 4 – Metro Phase 2

Map of potential Metro network